

Botanical Society of Washington

896th Meeting
Tuesday, October 7th at 6:00 P.M

Ray Mims, Conservation Horticulturist at the U.S. Botanic Garden, will be leading us on a guided tour and discussion of the current exhibition: One Planet - Ours! at the USBG. .

Because the One Planet - Ours! exhibition is located outside the USBG, and it's getting darker earlier, the walking tour will start at 6:00 pm followed by our usual business meeting inside the USBG.

We will have snacks. Parking is available in front of the USBG. The USBG can also be accessed by Metro. See <http://www.usbg.gov/your-visit/index.cfm> for further information

Location: United States Botanical Garden
100 Maryland Ave. S.W.
Washington, DC 20001

All are Welcome.

As usual, light refreshments will be served.
